RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE
Government of Constituent Chapters
O. E. S. of British Columbia

CHAPTERS UNDER DISPENSATION.

Sec. 54. Formation.—The Grand Patron may, upon the petition of not less than fifteen persons residing within the jurisdiction of the proposed new chapter, and properly recommended by the nearest chapter or majority of chapters having concurrent jurisdiction therewith, grant dispensation to form a new chapter; provided, that of such petitioners one shall be a Master Mason, possessing the qualifications of a petitioner for the degrees of the order, and not less than nine of the number shall be ladies; and, provided, further, that if any of such petitioners are not members of the order, the Grand Patron may confer the degrees upon a sufficient number to complete the minimum number required for the formation of a new chapter.

Sec. 55. Conditions.—The Grand Patron shall satisfy himself fully that all petitioners are eligible. When a member of the order joins a chapter U. D. by certificate of good standing, the organization of the new chapter severs his or her connection with the chapter granting the certificate, and the Secretary of the chapter U. D. shall immediately notify the chapter from which the member came.

Sec. 56. Fee.—The petitioners for a dispensation to form a new chapter shall pay to the Grand Secretary twenty-five dollars therefor; if for good reason the dispensation should be continued by order of the Grand Chapter, no additional fee shall be required.

Sec. 57. Officers.—A chapter U. D. cannot elect or install its officers. The Worthy Matron, Worthy Patron and Associate Matron, as recommended in the petition, shall be appointed by the Grand Patron and hold their respective offices until the constitution of the chapter. The Worthy Matron shall appoint all the other officers. A chapter U. D. shall recommend to the Grand Chapter the names of the persons desired by the members thereof to be named in the charter as their three highest officers, and the persons so named shall be installed at the constitution of the chapter and serve as such officers during the remainder of the calendar year without election.

Sec. 58. Powers.—A chapter U. D. can prepare by-laws for its government, subject to the approval of the Grand Matron, and can grant demits to its members. It possesses all the powers and may perform all the duties of a chartered chapter, except that it need not have a seal and that it cannot exercise discipline over its members. Offenses and charges arising under its jurisdiction must be submitted to the nearest chartered chapter, subject to appeal to the Grand Chapter.

Sec. 59. Returns.—A chapter U. D. must return for the inspection of Grand Chapter its dispensation, by-laws and records, together with the amount of fees for initiations and such tabulated statements as may be required by the Grand Secretary, on or before the first day of June, after which date no further communication can be held by the chapter U. D. until after the next communication of the Grand Chapter.

Sec. 60. Charter.—Upon satisfactory showing, the Grand Chapter may order a perpetual charter or continue the dispensation until the next annual communication. In case a charter be granted, the chapter may, unless otherwise ordered by the Grand Chapter, continue to meet and work until it shall have been regularly constituted by the Grand Matron or her deputy. In the event that any name entitled to appear upon the charter be omitted through error or neglect, it can be inserted thereon later by permission of the Grand Chapter.

Sec. 61. Representation.—A chapter U. D. is not entitled to representation or vote in Grand Chapter until its charter has been granted by the Grand Chapter and the chapter has been duly constituted. It is exempted from paying dues to the Grand Chapter until the time fixed by Grand Chapter for making its first annual report.

24 RULES AND REGULATIONS CONSTITUENT CHAPTERS

Sec. 62. Constitution.—A chapter receiving a charter can only be constituted by the Grand Matron or her duly authenticated uroxy, who must be an affiliated member of the Grand Chapter. Due notice must be given as early as possible after the close of the annual communication at which the charter was granted, of the time appointed to convene the members, organize the chapter and install the officers recommended and named in the charter.

Sec. 63. Records.—The dispensation to form a chapter shall be copied in full upon the records of the chapter, and the charter, when issued, shall be recorded thereon in like manner.

CONSTITUENT CHAPTERS.

Sec. 64. Authority.—Every constituent chapter must have a charter from this Grand Chapter, or a dispensation from the Grand Patron, attested by the Grand Secretary under the seal of the Grand Chapter, and no chapter shall be deemed legal or regular without such charter or dispensation. All communications, either public or private, are hereby prohibited between any chapter in this jurisdiction, or any member thereof, and any chapter illegally formed, opened or holden, or any person initiated therein.

RIGHTS, POWERS AND DUTIES OF CHAPTERS.

Sec. 65. Must Be Represented.—Each chartered chapter shall be represented in Grand Chapter at every annual communication by its Worthy Matron, Worthy Patron or Associate Matron, or their duly appointed proxy, but no such appointment shall be valid until certificate of same shall be filed with the Grand Secretary, and no person shall act as such proxy other than a member in good standing of the chapter so represented.

Sec. 66. By-Laws.—Each chapter shall have the inherent right to make and amend by-laws and regulations or its own government; provided, that such by-laws and regulations conform to the Constitution and Regulations of the Grand Chapter, and that no such by-laws or amendments thereto shall be effective until approved by the Grand Matron.

Sec. 67. Returns.—Each chartered chapter shall transmit to the Grand Secretary, on or before the first day of March, a full and correct statistical report for the previous calendar year, accompanied by the payment of its fees and dues, and each chapter under dispensation shall transmit promptly upon the first day of June a similar report covering the period from the date of its organization to that time. In case of the non-performance of this requirement by any chartered chapter, its representative shall be deprived of all privileges of Grand Chapter.

Sec. 68. Seal.—Each chartered chapter shall, within two months after the date of receiving its charter, procure a seal with the name, number and location of the chapter, and such devices as they may by vote decide to adopt, engraved thereon; and no document emanating from any chapter, or its Worthy Matron or Secretary in the official capacity of either, shall thereafter be received or deemed authentic without such seal being affixed thereto.

Sec. 69. Communications.—The meetings of a chapter shall be called communications, and are of two kinds, viz.: Stated and Special.

Sec. 70. Stated.—Stated communications shall be held at least once in each month at the time and place specified in their by-laws; provided, that it shall be optional for a subordinate chapter to hold communications during the communication of the Grand Chapter, if so desired.

Sec. 71. Special.—Special communications may be called by the Worthy Matron or at the discretion of the chapter, and shall be called at any time upon written request of seven or more members of the chapter, but only such business shall be transacted thereat for which such communication was called.

Sec. 72. Penalty for Failure to Hold.—Failure to hold a communication once in six months may subject a chapter to forfeiture of its charter by vote of the Grand Chapter.

Sec. 73. Cannot Adjourn.—All communications of a chapter shall remain in session absolutely within the discretion of the Worthy Matron as to length of time, and cannot by motion be adjourned, called off or postponed, but the Worthy

Matron can declare a communication closed when less than seven members of the chapter remain in attendance.

Sec. 74. Admission to.—After registering their names, all members and visitors in good standing are entitled to admission to the chapter room at any time during any communication, except during the opening and closing ceremonies, while a ballot is being spread, and in conformity with the rules regarding visitors and trials.

Sec. 75. Essentials to Open.—The presence of the charter or dispensation, the Holy Bible upon the altar (to be opened at the time prescribed by the ritual, at the second chapter of St. Matthew), one of the three highest officers (or a Past Matron or Past Patron) and six other members of the chapter, are indispensable to open a chapter for the transaction of business; but balloting on petitions or conferring degrees of the order cannot be done without the presence of a Master Mason in the East.

Sec. 76. Ritual.—Constituent chapters shall use only such rituals for the work of the order and issue only such diplomas as shall be authorized by this Grand Chapter. Copies of the ritual of the order can be procured from the Grand Secretary upon request of the secretary under the seal of the chapter.

MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 77. Qualification.—Membership shall be limited to Master Masons, (who are not engaged in the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors for other than medicinal or sacramental purposes), in good standing in any lodge in the United States or any foreign jurisdiction recognized by the grand Lodge of British Columbia, their wives, widows, mothers, mothers and sisters of legally adopted sons, daughters, sisters, half-sisters, and legally adopted daughters and sisters, who shall have attained to at least eighteen years of age; provided, that mutes, blind and deaf persons are ineligible; and, provided, further, that the suspension or expulsion of a brother from a Masonic Lodge shall also deprive him of all rights of membership in this order until reinstated by the Masonic body, but that the standing of a sister in the order shall not be affected by any action of a Masonic Lodge.

Sec. 78. Limitation.—No person can be a member of more than one chapter at the same time, nor can any member withdraw from a chapter until all dues are paid or remitted.

Sec. 79. Petitions.—Petitions for membership by degrees or affiliation can be received only at stated communications of a chapter, and shall be signed by the petitioner, giving full christian name, place of residence, and must be recommended by two members of the chapter to which presented. Petitions for the degrees shall further state whether or not the petitioner has ever applied before or has ever been rejected.

Sec. 80. For Degrees.—Each petition for the degrees shall be accompanied by a certificate of the Masonic membership on which the petition is based and the amount of the degree fee as prescribed by the by-laws of the chapter, which shall be not less than five dollars.

Sec. 81. For Affiliation.—Each petition for affiliation shall be accompanied by a demit, or certificate of good standing, from the chapter of which the petitioner was last, or is now, a member; provided, that certificates of good standing may be accepted from members of other chapters in this jurisdiction only.

Sec. 82. Residence.—No petition for degrees shall be received by any chapter unless the petitioner shall have actually resided immediately preceding the date of such petition at least one year within this Grand Jurisdiction and six months within the jurisdiction of the chapter to which petition is presented; provided, that exception shall be made in the case of seafaring men, students or persons whose profession does not permit of continuous actual residence for six months within the jurisdiction of any chapter, and female members of their respective families.

Sec. 83. Waiver.—A chapter may receive the petition for degrees from an applicant otherwise qualified residing within the jurisdiction of some other chapter by having first obtained the consent of such chapter; provided, that no such waiver of jurisdiction shall be granted except by two-thirds vote by show of hands in the case of a petitioner for degrees previously rejected by the chapter having jurisdiction.

Sec. 84. Same.—Any chapter desiring waiver of jurisdiction over a petitioner residing within the concurrent jurisdiction of several chapters, shall not be required to obtain such waiver from more than one of such chapters; provided, that the applying chapter shall have given notice of such request to all the chapters having concurrent jurisdiction.

Sec. 85. Jurisdiction.—The jurisdiction of chapters for all purposes shall extend to a point geographically half-way between them, except that in cities or towns where more than one chapter exists, and within two miles outside their corporate limits, they shall have concurrent jurisdiction; and in such cases, each chapter shall immediately notify all chapters under concurrent jurisdiction of all petitions received by it for membership.

Sec. 86. Conduct of Members.—Each chapter shall take cognizance of the conduct of every member of the order within its jurisdiction, for the purpose of enforcing obedience to the laws of the order and maintaining its good name. Any member, whether affiliated or not, can be tried for bad conduct in the jurisdiction wherein he or she resides.

Sec. 87. Courtesy.—The degrees of the order may be conferred by courtesy upon a duly elected petitioner, in compliance with request of chapter having elected the petitioner, whether within this or another grand jurisdiction.

Sec. 88. Investigating Committee.—Each petition for membership shall be referred to a committee of three members (one of whom shall be a brother), appointed by the Worthy Matron, who shall thoroughly investigate the qualifications and character of the petitioner, and make to the chapter a written report thereon, signed by a majority of the committee (one of whom must be a brother); and no further action upon a petition shall be taken by the chapter until the next regular meeting after its receipt, or before satisfactory evidence of the petitioner's qualifications and character has been obtained, and of this the chapter itself must be the judge.

That more care be taken in investigating candidates for membership, so that we do not sacrifice quality for the sake of quantity. Make it a privilege to be sought for.

Sec. 89. Withdrawal of Petition.—After having been referred to an investigating committee, a petition becomes the property of the chapter and it cannot be withdrawn, except as hereinafter stated; provided, that a petition for affiliation may be withdrawn at any time previous to ballot thereupon by making written application therefor. A ballot is necessary in all cases upon petitions for the degrees, except when it is found that the chapter has no jurisdiction, or that the petitioner is ineligible or has been proposed without authority, in any of which even the Worthy Matron shall declare the petition void.

Sec. 90. Ballotting.—No ballot shall be taken on a petition for degrees or membership at any other than a stated meeting, nor in less than two weeks from the time the petition was received and referred. A separate ballot shall be taken on each petition for membership, without discussion upon the merits thereof, and must be unanimously in favor of the petitioner in order to secure election.

Sec. 91. Method.—The ballot box shall be provided with white balls, not less in number than the members present, and black cubes, not less in number than one for every twelve white balls and fraction thereof contained therein. Not more than one ballot box shall be used on each petition, and it shall either be passed to the members or placed on the altar beside the open Bible to receive the ballots, at the option of the Worthy Matron. All members of the chapter shall rise to their feet and cast their ballots on each petition, and no one shall be allowed to retire from the chapter room while any ballot is in progress.

Sec. 92. Reballotting.—No member shall be permitted to move for the reconsideration of an unfavorable ballot; but if not more than one black ball shall appear upon the first ballot, the Worthy Matron shall, before announcing the result thereof, order a second ballot, which shall be final.

Sec. 93. Secrecy of Ballot—Penalty.—No one but the Worthy Matron and Associate Matron shall, after the close of the ballot, see the contents of the ballot box, which shall be cleared at once by the Worthy Matron, after declaring the result of the ballot. Immediately after the announcement of the result of an unfavorable ballot, and before any one shall have retired from the chapter room, the remainder of this section shall be read aloud in open chapter:

"No statement as to the character of anyone's vote shall be allowed, and no remark or discussion concerning the action of the chapter is permissible. The ballot must be kept secret, and any violation of its secrecy shall be met with prompt discipline. Any member or visitor divulging the secrecy of the ballot, or making known the character of ballot cast by anyone, or informing anyone not a member of the order concerning the rejection of a petition for membership, shall, upon conviction thereof, be suspended not less than three months nor more than three years, or expelled, as the chapter shall decide; provided, that if the ballot be declared clear in error, it is the duty of any member knowing that the ballot was not clear to object immediately."

Sec. 94. Rejected Petitioners.—Rejected petitioners for the degrees may again petition for membership, in the same or any other chapter having concurrent jurisdiction, after the expiration of three months after rejection, and each petition must be acted on as an original; provided, that no petition of a rejected petitioner for the degrees shall be received within six months after such rejection by any chapter other than those having concurrent jurisdiction with the rejecting chapter without a two-thirds vote of the rejecting chapter consenting thereto.

Sec. 95. Same.—Rejected petitioners for affiliation may again petition at any time and in any chapter, and each petition must be acted upon as an original.

Sec. 96. Erroneous Ballot.—When a petitioner has been rejected through a mistake or misapprehension, the rejecting chapter may correct such error at the same or any subsequent stated communication in the following manner, viz.: The member or members who balloted in the negative by mistake or misapprehension, shall announce the same in open chapter; and if the number of such members shall correspond with the number of negative ballots by which the petition was rejected, a new ballot shall be taken, after all members present at the time of the first ballot shall have had due notice thereof.

Sec. 97. Objection After Ballot.—If any member in good standing, even though having been present when the ballot was taken, shall object, either in open chapter or to the Worthy Matron, to conferring the degrees upon an elected petitioner, it is equivalent to rejection by ballot, and the degrees cannot be conferred. The objecting member shall not be required to state reasons for objection, and the fact of objection alone, and not the name of the objector, shall be entered upon the records of the chapter.

Sec. 98. Notice to Petitioners.—The Secretary shall notify all petitioners of the result of the ballot on their petitions, and in case of a petition being rejected or declared void, return forthwith the degree fee accompanying it; provided, that at least one week shall elapse after election before the degree shall be conferred upon an elected petitioner.

Sec. 99. Failure to Appear.—Failure of an elected petitioner to appear after such notification and receive the degrees within one year after election shall render void all action upon such petition, and a clear ballot upon another original petition shall be necessary before the degrees may be conferred.

Sec. 100. Demits.—Demits shall be granted by direction of the Worthy Matron, upon written request of the applicant presented at a stated communication of the chapter; provided, that dues to date be paid or remitted, and no charges are preferred and pending. The membership of such petitioner shall be severed from and after granting of a demit, and can only be renewed in the same or any other chapter by unanimous ballot upon petition for affiliation.

Sec. 101. Certificate.—Certificates of good standing, valid for three months only after date of issuance and void thereafter, for the purpose of enabling members to affiliate with another chapter within this grand jurisdiction, shall be issued in the same manner and under the same conditions as

demits, except that their issuance shall not sever membership in the chapter issuing same.

Sec. 102. Transfer of Membership.—The secretary of a chapter electing a member whose petition was accompanied by a certificate of good standing shall immediately thereafter report such election to the secretary of the chapter issuing such certificate, who, in turn, shall at once issue and forward a demit for said member to the chapter electing said member, and report such action at the next stated communication of the issuing chapter. The petitioner's new membership shall date from the election of such petitioner in the new chapter.

Sec. 103. Cancellation of Demit.—All demits and certificates of good standing shall be cancelled and preserved by the secretary of the chapter receiving the member.

Sec. 104. Right to Visit.—Members of the order in good standing, who have been properly examined, singly and in secret, by a committee appointed by the Worthy Matron, or otherwise vouched for, if found worthy, shall have the right of visiting any chapter; provided, that no objection is made to the visit of such member.

Sec. 105. Objection to Visitor.—Any member shall have the unrestricted right to object to the visit of anyone not a member of the chapter; provided, that the objector must be present, must make objection to the Worthy Matron in person, and, in order to be valid, must renew objection each time the visitor is present.

OFFICERS—ELECTION AND INSTALLATION.

Sec. 106. Officers.—The officers of a chapter shall consist of a Worthy Matron, Worthy Patron, Associate Matron, Secretary, Treasurer, Conductress, Associate Conductress, Chaplain, Marshal, Organist, Adah, Ruth, Esther, Martha, Electra, Warder and Sentinel. Any member of a chapter in good standing is eligible to any office within its gift, but electioneering for office is not permissible.

Sec. 107. Election.—The seven officers first named in the preceding section shall be elected annually in the order named, by a separate and majority ballot (excluding blanks), at the first stated communication in December, no notice of such election being necessary.

Sec. 108. Appointment.—The other officers shall be appointed by the Worthy Matron-elect prior to her installation.

Sec. 109. Installation.—All officers shall be installed (either in public or within their own chapter) on or before the first stated communication in January following their election or appointment, or as often as re-elected or re-appointed, and shall hold their offices until their respective successors are elected, or appointed, and installed.

Sec. 110. Delayed.—If for good reason any of the officers cannot be installed at the time of the installation ceremonies, they shall be installed in their own chapter as soon as possible thereafter.

Sec. 111. Objection.—Objection to the installation of any officer cannot be entertained by the installing officer, unless the grounds for objection be of a very serious nature, affecting the moral character of the officer, and can be proven when charges are preferred, which must be done without delay by the objector to the Grand Matron.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

Sec. 112. Worthy Matron.—The Worthy Matron shall preside throughout the communications of the chapter, except while the degrees are being conferred, see that the report of the jurisprudence committee, as adopted at each annual communication of the Grand Chapter, is read in open chapter once each year, and that the by-laws, rules and regulations of the order are strictly observed; appoint all committees; require the officers to faithfully perform their respective duties; remove any appointive officer for just cause; see that each candidate receiving the degrees be taught the secret work immediately after being initiated; see that the proceedings of the Grand Chapter are read in open chapter as soon as received; discharge all the executive functions of the chapter; and, in the absence of the Worthy Patron, call any brother in good standing to preside during the conferring of the degrees or balloting on petitions.

34 RULES AND REGULATIONS CONSTITUENT CHAPTERS

Sec. 113. Appeal from Decision.—From the decision of the Worthy Matron during a communication of the chapter there is no appeal, except to the Grand Matron or Grand Chapter; and when the official decision of the Grand Matron is desired, the Worthy Matron shall submit the question at issue to her, with a full statement of all the facts relative thereto, under the seal of the chapter.

Sec. 114 Install Successor.—It is the prerogative of the Worthy Matron, at the close of her term of office, to install her successor and the other officers for the ensuing year, or deputize a Past Matron or Past Patron as her proxy.

Sec. 115. Worthy Patron.—The Worthy Patron shall be a Master Mason in good standing. His duties are to have general supervision over the affairs of the chapter; to advise with and assist the Worthy Matron; to give the secret work and the obligations with the members once each month; to preside during the conferring of the degrees; and to call upon the Worthy Matron at any time to assist in conferring the degrees.

Sec. 116. Same.—In the absence of the Worthy Matron and Associate Matron, he may call upon any sister to preside.

Sec. 117. Associate Matron.—The Associate Matron shall perform the duties pertaining to her office; and in case of the death, absence or disability of the Worthy Matron, or a vacancy in her office, succeed to her position, prerogatives and duties.

Sec. 118. Secretary.—The Secretary shall, in addition to the duties indicated in the ritual of the order, perform the following duties:

Certify and affix the seal of the chapter to all official documents, and attest the official signature of the Worthy Matron when necessary.

Keep such books as may be necessary to show the account of each member with the chapter, and the receipts of all money and payments of same to the treasurer, classified by proper dates.

Preserve the books of Constitution and By-Laws of the Grand Chapter and all printed proceedings thereof, together with all the papers and documents belonging to the chapter.

Send to the Grand Matron and Grand Secretary, immediately after each installation, a correct list of the officers installed.

Prepare on blanks furnished by the Grand Secretary, a statistical report of the chapter for the preceding calendar year, and forward same to the Grand Secretary on or before the first day of March of each year, accompanied by the Grand Chapter dues; such report to be prepared by the outgoing Secretary and signed by the outgoing Worthy Matron.

Notify the Grand Secretary immediately of all deaths of members, suspensions and expulsions from, and restorations to membership.

Send written notice promptly to chapters having concurrent jurisdiction with their own, of all petitions received for membership.

Inform in writing, twice between the first day of June and the first day of November of each year, all members indebted to the chapter for more than the current year's dues, of the state of their account and of the provisions of Section 123 of these Rules and Regulations.

Sec. 119. Of Other Officers.—The other officers shall perform the duties indicated by their titles and stations, in conformity with the ritual and under the direction of the Worthy Matron.

Sec. 120. Officers and Members.—That so far as practicable the use of the Ritual be discontinued in chapter and officers be required to memorize their work within thirty days after election.

That members make a careful study of the Constitution and By-laws of the Grand Chapter, as well as those governing their own chapter.

VACANCIES IN OFFICE.

Sec. 121. Before Installation.—Any officer, failing to be present for installation within three months after election or appointment, shall by vote of the chapter forfeit all right to the office and a vacancy be declared to exist, which shall be filled at a stated communication—by ballot, if an elective office be vacant, the members having been duly notified to that effect.

36 RULES AND REGULATIONS CONSTITUENT CHAPTERS

Sec. 122. After Installation.—After their installation, vacancies in the office of Worthy Matron, Worthy Patron or Associate Matron can occur only in case of failure to fill their respective offices for six months consecutively, death, removal from the grand jurisdiction, or election to another office; and in such event, upon the properly certified request of the chapter adopted at a stated communication, the Grand Matron may declare the office vacant and issue a dispensation to fill such vacancy, the members having been duly notified to that effect.

Sec. 123. Of Other Offices.—A vacancy in any other office may be declared to exist at any time by majority vote of the chapter, by reason of death, or neglect of duty; and if occurring in any other elective office than that of Worthy Matron, Worthy Patron and Associate Matron, may be filled by ballot at any stated communication, the members having been duly notified to that effect.

FAILURE TO PAY DUES.

Sec. 124. Dropping from Roll.—No chapter shall expel or suspend any member for failure to pay dues, but all members who at midnight on the day of which the last stated communication in November was, or should have been held, shall be indebted to their chapter in a sum equal to one year's dues exclusive of the dues for the current calendar year, shall forthwith cease to be members thereof, their names shall be dropped from its roll of membership, and their status shall be that of unaffiliated members without demits; provided, that the secretary of every chapter shall notify in writing twice each year between the first day of June and the first day of November, all members delinquent for the previous calendar year's dues of the state of their account and of the provisions of this section. At the first stated communication in December of each year, and before the election of officers thereat, the Worthy Matron shall announce the names of those whose membership shall have ceased, unless they shall have restored themselves to membership. The Worthy Matron and Secretary may be held responsible for neglect of the duties herein prescribed, but no such neglect shall render inoperative the provisions thereof.

Sec. 125. How Restored.—All persons, whose membership shall have expired under the provisions of the preceeding section may be restored to membership within twenty-five months thereafter by notifying their chapter in writing of their desire to renew membership, paying or procuring remission of their arrearage at the time of being dropped, and paying their dues for the remainder of the current year; provided, that if a demit be requested and granted at the time of restoration, dues in advance shall not be collected. After twenty-five months from date of being dropped, such persons can obtain membership only by petition for restoration, a majority vote shall be sufficient to restore membership.

Sec. 126. Certificate.—A member dropped from membership by any chapter for non-payment of dues shall be entitled to receive from the secretary thereof at any time a certificate showing the fact of being dropped for non-payment of dues, the date thereof, the amount due when dropped from the roll, and the date of such certificate. Such a certificate, when showing that all such indebtedness to the chapter has been paid or remitted, may be received with a petition for affiliation in lieu of a demit.

DISSOLUTION OF CHAPTERS.

Sec. 127. How Secured.—The charter of a chapter cannot be surrendered as long as seven members desire to retain it. A motion to surrender it should be acted upon with great prudence. If it be deemed expedient to consider the question of surrendering the charter, the resolution must be presented in writing, introduced at a stated communication, and lie over until the next stated communication. Every member within reasonable distance should be summoned to attend the communication when the question shall be brought up for final action.

Sec. 128. Return of Property.—In the event of the surrender or forfeiture of the charter of a chapter, the charter, jewels, property and all records become the property of the Grand Chapter, and must be forwarded at once to the Grand Secretary.

38 RULES AND REGULATIONS CONSTITUENT CHAPTERS

Sec. 129. Status of Members.—The Grand Secretary, upon the application of any member of a defunct chapter who was in good standing and clear on the books when the charter was surrendered, and against whom no charges are pending, can issue to such member a demit; provided, that the charter or dispensation was not revoked by proper authority; and provided further, that said member was blameless of any act of omission of duty rendering the recall of said charter or dispensation necessary, and of this the Grand Matron and Grand Secretary are to be the judges.

PENAL CODE

Sec. 130. Whatever is a breach of good morals, or a violation of the laws of the Province or Dominion, is an offense against the principles of this Order, and must be promptly dealt with.

Sec. 131. Any member disobeying the order of the presiding officer, or in any manner disturbing the harmony of the Chapter, may be invited by the presiding officer to withdraw from the chapter room; if, on such invitation, the member so offending gives assurance of no further trouble, he or she may be permitted to remain. Should the offense be repeated, the member shall be excluded from the hall during such session of the chapter, if so ordered by the presiding officer.

Sec. 132. The only penalties recognized are four, viz:

1. Reprimand.
2. Suspension for a definite time.
3. Suspension indefinitely.
4. Expulsion.

Sec. 133. No person can be reprimanded, suspended or expelled, for any offense whatever, unless written charges and specifications be filed and ten day's notice of the time and place of trial be given; provided, that in case of suspension or expulsion of a brother from a Masonic body, the entry on the chapter records of a certificate from such body, of its action, or oral proof of the fact in open chapter, shall be conclusive evidence, and the brother shall stand suspended or expelled in the chapter until restored to good standing in the Masonic body.

Sec. 134. Any affiliated member has a right to prefer charges, and may act as counsel for either the accused or the chapter, but in no case can this right be extended to one who is not affiliated.

Sec. 135. Complaints or charges against a Matron or Patron must be made to the Grand Matron during vacation, or to the Grand Chapter while in session, and if approved, the Grand Matron will fix a time for trial and notify the chapter, with a copy of the charges made, and instruct the secretary of the chapter to serve a copy upon the accused, at which time she or her deputy shall preside.

Sec. 136. All charges must be made in writing, signed by the party making them, with specifications, including the names of witnesses. They shall be read in open Chapter at a stated communication, and if the Chapter by a majority vote of the members present entertain the charges and specifications, they shall be spread upon the records. The presiding officer shall set a time for trial, and instruct the secretary to notify accused of the same, or may refer the matter to a special grievance committee with instructions to give notice, take testimony and report their findings and recommendations.

Sec. 137. All charges must be heard and decided by the Chapter; in no case can this be left to a committee.

Sec. 138. The secretary may serve the notice either in person or by mail, but when sent by mail, twenty days shall be allowed for the accused to receive it.

Sec. 139. Upon the trial of a sister, at the request of a majority of the sisters present, the brothers shall retire; and upon the trial of a brother, at the request of a majority of the brothers present, the sisters shall retire.

Sec. 140. The rules of evidence shall be, so far as applicable, the same as in the Masonic law.

Sec. 141. The attendance of witnesses on either side, when they are members of the order, may be enforced by summons, which shall be issued by the secretary when ordered by the Worthy Matron or Chapter.

Sec. 142. When a witness is non-resident, and cannot attend in person before the Chapter, her or his evidence may be taken before a Worthy Matron or Worthy Patron certified by the secretary under seal of the Chapter in whose jurisdiction the witness may reside, both the accused and the accuser having due notice of the time and place of taking the testimony.

Sec. 143. The evidence of members of the order who may not be able to attend the trial, and of persons not members of the order, shall be taken in writing by a committee appointed by the presiding officer, of which both parties shall have due notice.

Sec. 144. The accused shall be a competent witness, but shall not be required by the Chapter to give evidence unless he or she shall be willing to testify, and cannot be allowed to vote on any question growing out of his or her case.

Sec. 145. At the time set for trial, if the accused fails to appear in person or by counsel, or has absconded before notice is served, the presiding officer may continue the case to some future time, or appoint a competent member to appear for the accused, and decide upon the case as though the accused were present.

Sec. 146. Should the accused appear and plead guilty to the charge and specifications no further evidence is necessary, and the Chapter shall at once fix the penalty.

Sec. 147. At the time and place appointed, the committee shall proceed to take the evidence of each witness, and after reading to each, her or his testimony in the case, request her or him to sign the same. The evidence thus taken shall be reduced to writing, preserved by the secretary and read before the Chapter at the time of the trial.

Sec. 148. The presiding officer shall decide as to the admissibility of any testimony offered, and all points of law and order that may be raised.

Sec. 149. After the evidence shall have been presented, and the prosecution and defendant, by themselves or counsel, have had an opportunity of being heard, the defendant shall retire, and the Chapter shall proceed to decide by taking a separate ballot upon each charge and specification; first, whether the accused is guilty or not guilty, as charged, and if found guilty by a majority of the votes cast, then to fix the penalty, commencing with the highest grade and so on down until some penalty is determined on.

42. RULES AND REGULATIONS CONSTITUENT CHAPTERS

Sec. 150. Should definite suspension be decided upon, the time must be fixed upon by motion, but the longest time must be voted upon first.

Sec. 151. Should the Chapter refuse by a majority vote to inflict any penalty, after having voted on any grade, the secretary shall, within three days, certify the fact to the Grand Matron, who shall arrest the charter of the Chapter.

Sec. 152. The suspension of a member precludes for the time being, all privileges and benefits of the order whatever, and the expiration of time for which a member stands suspended restores her or him to all rights and privileges which she or he possessed before the trial.

Sec. 153. A sentence of suspension or expulsion will be in force from and after the passage thereof, until reversed by the Chapter pronouncing sentence or by the Grand Chapter.

Sec. 154. Any one refusing to submit to the penalty of reprimand is subject to discipline, and upon conviction thereof, may be suspended or expelled.

Sec. 155. To restore to membership any member of a chapter who may be indefinitely suspended, or expelled, shall require a petition for restoration received at a previous stated communication, which must have been referred to and reported upon by a committee of investigation, where it shall require a majority vote to restore one suspended, and a two-thirds vote one who has been expelled.

Sec. 156. A new trial may be granted by a chapter that tried the case, when a member has been suspended or expelled, in the following cases and upon the following conditions:

1. Upon newly discovered evidence which would indicate with reasonable certainty a change in the finding of the Chapter.

2. When a finding of a chapter is contrary to the evidence, and law and usage, or the penalty excessive.

Sec. 157. Application for a new trial must be made in writing, addressed to the Chapter, and contain a statement of the causes upon which the application is founded, be presented within ninety days after the trial was had or within ninety days after the accused is informed of the action of the Chapter, and in all cases where a new trial is granted, the same rules shall govern as in the first instance.

Sec. 158. Every member found guilty of an offense, or any member of the Chapter, if either deem herself or himself or the cause of the order injured by the decision of the Chapter, or of the Worthy Matron thereof, in any trial may, within thirty days after such decision, appeal therefrom to the Grand Chapter at its next annual communication; in which case it shall be the duty of the secretary of the Chapter, upon receiving notice of such appeal, to transmit all the papers and a full, true and complete copy of all the proceedings had, and evidence taken in the case, to the Grand Secretary.

Sec. 159. Whenever an appeal shall be taken from any constituent Chapter, as provided in the foregoing section, the Grand Chapter may upon investigation:

1. Dismiss the appeal, approve the proceedings, or affirm the decision appealed from.
2. Modify or change a decision or sentence, or inflict a penalty where the constituent Chapter has failed to do so.
3. Set aside the proceedings of the Chapter for informality, and remand the case for future proceedings.

Sec. 160. The appeal shall first be referred to and receive investigation by the Committee on Grievances and Appeals, who shall report the facts, with their opinion thereon, to the Grand Chapter in session, and the decision of the Grand Chapter shall be conclusive upon all parties.

Sec. 161. The Committee on Grievances and Appeals shall not receive any other or further testimony than such as comes up with the appeal, nor shall any additional testimony be presented in the Grand Chapter unless by unanimous consent.

Sec. 162. Whenever the Grand Chapter shall modify or change a decision or sentence adjudged by a constituent Chapter, the same shall be final; and upon notice thereof, such constituent Chapter shall cause the same to be entered upon its records.

44 RULES AND REGULATIONS CONSTITUENT CHAPTERS

Sec. 163. Whenever the Grand Chapter, on a review of the trial or other proceedings of a Chapter, shall reverse or annul the judgment of said proceedings or shall order a new trial, the accused shall be thereby restored to all her or his rights, privileges and membership.
